

Clay Tour & Activity: $15 per student

WMA's Clay Tour & Activity provides students with a two and a half hour immersive experience within the galleries and the classroom. The tour begins with one hour exploring the works on display throughout the galleries paying special interest in ceramics works. After students gather new knowledge and artistic inspiration, the tour is moved to the classroom where every student spends an hour and half learning basic handbuilding techniques and creating their own unique work of art! All student pieces will be available for pick-up two weeks after the tour.

This tour has a 10 student minimum and a 45 student maximum.

Art-Making Activities

- Aligned with visual arts curriculum standards.
- The art lesson can be cross-curricular and tailored to what is currently being taught in the classroom.
- Taught by museum educators and customized to each grade level.
- Support multi-modal learning and reinforce concepts discussed during gallery tours.

Docent-Led Tours

- Encourage careful observation.
- Foster an open exchange of ideas.
- Cultivate connections between art and life.
- Create a positive and welcoming learning environment.
- Utilize a variety of teaching strategies and group activities to help meet the needs and interests of diverse learners.

Chaperone Policy

At the museum we strive to ensure each student has an engaging experience, below you will find the recommended number of chaperones per student.

- K-2nd grade: 1 adult per 5 students
- 3-8th grade: 1 adult per 10 students
- 9-12th grade: 1 adult per 15 students

Admission is free for one teacher or chaperone per 10 students. Additional chaperones pay $3 each.

All chaperones must be 21 years of age and up.

Late Arrival Policy

You are responsible for arriving at the Museum at your scheduled time. Please carefully review driving directions in advance. Unfortunately, we cannot extend the length of your guided tour because of late arrival. If you are going to be late, please call our front desk at 334-794-3871. We cannot delay or reschedule your tours if you are late, the tour will still finish at the scheduled time. Late groups are still responsible for paying the full amount.

Cancellation Policy

If you need to cancel your tour please consult the following terms. We do our best to be flexible with every school but late cancellations and no-show tours incur significant staffing costs to the Museum. Cancellation requests must be sent by email to brook@wiregrassmuseum.org at least two weeks prior to your scheduled visit. Cancellations are only finalized once acknowledged by an email response. If you need to reschedule (with at least two weeks' notice), we will make every effort to accommodate a new proposed date, but cannot guarantee a spot.
